+1 (866) 381-7244

1. Why are my YouTube TV voice commands not working?
If YouTube TV is not responding to +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} voice commands, first confirm that your Google smart speaker, display, Chromecast, or compatible streaming device is properly connected and that +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} you're signed in with the same Google Account used for YouTube TV. Try a more specific command, such as saying the complete program name followed by +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} “on YouTube TV.” If you're controlling a particular +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} television, include the device name in the command. +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} Restarting the connected devices can also help resolve temporary connection problems.

2. Why does YouTube TV misunderstand my voice commands?
Voice commands can be misunderstood +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} when they are too short or ambiguous, especially if multiple TVs or devices are connected. Google recommends being more specific by +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} saying the entire name of the show or movie, adding “on YouTube TV,” or identifying the TV or device you want to control. For example, instead of saying +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} only “Play the game,” specify the program and the television or streaming device when necessary.

3. Why is the YouTube TV volume not responding to my voice or remote?
YouTube TV itself does not provide +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} native volume controls inside the app; volume control generally depends on the TV, streaming device, remote, or connected sound system. If volume +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} commands are not working, check whether the remote can control the TV's volume outside YouTube TV. You can also power off and restart the TV, +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} streaming device, and sound system. If volume still does not work, the +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} issue may be related to the device or audio equipment +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} rather than your YouTube TV membership.

4. What should I do if there is no sound on YouTube TV?

First, check the TV's volume and mute +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} settings and make sure the correct audio output device is selected. Restart the TV or streaming device and try another program to determine whether +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} the issue affects all content. If you're using a compatible +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} setup with YouTube TV's 5.1 surround sound, you can also try turning 5.1 audio off under YouTube TV → Profile picture → Settings → 5.1 audio. Some +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} programs and channels may not support 5.1 audio, so audio availability can vary by content.

5. How do I fix YouTube TV voice or audio problems that continue after restarting?

If restarting does not solve the issue, +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} make sure the YouTube TV app and your device software are updated. You can also uninstall and reinstall the YouTube TV app, then sign in again. +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} Check whether other apps on the same device have similar audio problems; if they do, the issue may be with the TV, streaming device, or sound system +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} rather than YouTube TV. If the problem occurs only with +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} YouTube TV and continues after these steps, use the official YouTube +1 (866) 381-7244 {US/UK} TV Help Center to access additional troubleshooting and support.
